

It is not up to government agencies to tell me what I can listen to. That is my decision and no one elses. I pay for the right to have XM radio and they should be able to broadcast information that I want to hear no matter what the content. NAB petition 04-160 is another slap in the face of intelligent Americans by a government agency that presumes to know what is right for everybody else. This petition must be rejected!